Lamplight, on paper

New single. Four people, one van, too many pedals.

Set length: 35 minutes, or 50 if you have a curfew
that is a suggestion.
Lineup: guitar, guitar, bass, drums.
We carry our own ears. We do not carry a piano.

The quiet song is third. Do not put us on before the room has sat down, or after a fog machine.

Merch is a small table. We will not block a door.

Stage, short version

Inputs: 6.
Monitors: 3 wedges. Vocals in all of them.
Power: two drops, stage left and the drum riser.

Load in is 90 minutes if the dock is kind.
We are gone 40 minutes after the last song,
because the van is parked badly on purpose.

Settlement in the green room, not in the alley.
